Beechdale Frames

2021-2022 CATALOG

Family has always been important to Allen and Becky Miller. It's what led them to convert their barn and garage on Beechdale Road into their first art studio and showroom in 2000. That dedication to family has been a driving force in how they build relationships with their clients and the artisans they represent. Everyone is treated like family.

You'll see this in the way they run the business still to this day. Although they have expanded significantly beyond their original location near Bird-in-Hand, PA, their values remain deeply rooted in family and in putting customers first.

You'll find Allen and Becky still actively involved in the daily operations, art curation, sourcing of materials, and quality control. Now, they are joined by their three sons, Arlan, David, and Christian. Business partner and family friend, Paul Fisher leads production ensuring each order is completed with attention to quality and care. This hands-on approach ensures you always receive the best quality framed artwork. And if you ever have a question, our team will help you find a solution.

We invite you to browse our selection of wholesale wall art, home décor, shelfie sticks, and wooden signs. We've curated each collection to delight your customers and inspire sales at various points throughout your shop.

I like your art, but I'm looking for a different style of frame.

We've featured our most popular frames, but we also have approximately twenty additional molding profiles you can choose from. For larger jobs we can also source additional styles. Call us to start a conversation about what you are interested in, pricing, and how we can help accent your favorite works of art.

Your Country and Primitive artwork just isn't my style – do you have other artwork available?

Yes! We work with numerous art publishers offering a broad range of artistic styles. Coupled with our extensive collection of framing options, we can help you create a piece of art to meet any style or niche. Call us to learn more.

Do you offer custom framing?

While we don't generally custom frame single items, we do work with our clients on larger custom projects such as hotel décor or manufacturing specific products. Call us and we'd be happy to discuss your options.
